

Award-winning author Bob Doerr's Recommended MWSA Reading List

Autumn - 2011

The Military Writers Society of America (MWSA) is an organization of over one thousand writers, poets, and artists drawn together by a common bond of military service. One purpose of MWSA is to review the written works of its members. From the society's recent book reviews, it has selected the following as its 2011 Suggested Autumn Reading List:

Life Interrupted by War	by Thomas van Hees	(NonFiction/Memoir)
True Blue	by Joe Sanchez & Mo Dhanian	(NonFiction/Biography)
Henry Ford's Moving Picture Show	by Philip W. Stewart	(NonFiction/Reference)
Incoming	by Jack Mannick	(Military/Army)
One More Sunrise	by Curtis P. Gay	(Military/Army)
Unsinkable Sailors	by Paul Sherbo	(Military/Navy)
King of the Oilers	by Jon Strupp	(Military/Navy)
Jugs & Bottles	by Nelson O. Ottenhausen	(Fiction/Thriller)
Wraith	by James R. Hannibal	(Fiction/Thriller)
Fighting Bob	by Robert Stockton	(Fiction/Historical Fiction)
The Allegmagne Deception	by Donald Farinacci	(Fiction/Historical Fiction)
Depictions	by Chuck Habermehl	(Poetry)
Tales Mark Twain Would have Loved to Steal	by Glenn Wasson	(Fiction/Short Stories)

To learn more MWSA and the above listed books, or to see additional book reviews, past award winners, or to find a list of authors please visit their website: www.militarywriters.com .